HARVEST MOON DELIGHT

The Harvest Moon Festival gets celebrated in countries across the world as a show of gratitude and celebration of more light by which to harvest an abundance of crops. Giving gratitude has been shown by health experts to boost mood and inner health.

This body scrub and massage treatment assists you in offering thanks for health and well-being. The introductory exfoliation removes tired skin revealing smoother skin beneath. Percussion therapy targets tight muscles in the back, shoulders and hips. A heated, wrapped lava compress follows to relax tight upper body muscles. Soreness and tension continue to leave your body as your service provider works Harvest Moon Oil into muscles and joints. The treatment concludes with a warm paraffin wax and calming reflexology for the hands and feet.
